This well-preserved monumental tomb appears in the movie “Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade.” A walk further down through the Outer Siq with all its tombs and burial chambers brings us to one of the largest theaters in Jordan. A 3000-seat theater from the early first century is carved in the sandstone mountains at the bottom of the High Place of Sacrifice Mountain. Apparently, some sacrificial rituals had taken place here. It was here that Jesus revealed the wonderful power of presence in communion with saints of the past (Moses and Elijah). We visit the Church of the Transfiguration and have teaching and time of prayer in the garden. We proceed to the national park of Sepphoris, which was once an important city in the Temple and post-Temple period, to see the famous mosaic of the “Mona Lisa of the Galilee.” Also here, is a Byzantine Era Synagogue with a mosaic of the Zodiac signs. Our next stop is Cana, the location of Jesus’s first Miracle (John 2) and the famous wedding church. We proceed to the city of Nazareth; the place Jesus spend his childhood. Jerusalem and walk down the same path that Jesus took when he entered the city on Palm Sunday. Halfway down the hill we reach the Garden of Gethsemane where Jesus spent the night in prayer. Here, Jesus was arrested and began his journey to the cross. This is a profoundly holy place, and we have teaching and time of private prayer in the garden itself. David sparing Saul’s life and hike to the first waterfall in this nature reserve. (1 Samuel 24). Next, we visit Masada, where the Jews made their last stand against the Romans after the fall of Jerusalem in 70 A.D., and we ride the cable car to the top of the fortress built by Herod the Great.
